AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE · LOOK-ALIKE LETTERS · GRADES 2–5

Letters That Move: J and Z

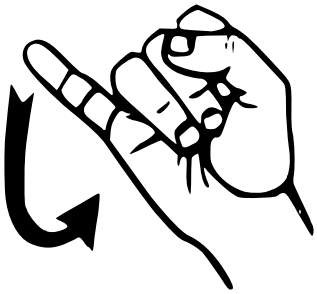

J and Z are the only letters that move. Trace the path each one draws in the air.

Name: _____ Date: _____

J starts as an I (only the pinky up) and the pinky draws a J in the air. Z uses only the pointer finger, which draws a Z in the air.

Make each handshape, then trace the letter it draws.

J

Z

Circle the answer.

Which finger draws the J? pinky pointer thumb

Which finger draws the Z? pinky pointer thumb

J starts with the handshape for which letter? A I L

How many letters in the ASL alphabet move? 2 5 26

Art © Kevin Coulston

ANSWER KEY · LOOK-ALIKE LETTERS · GRADES 2–5

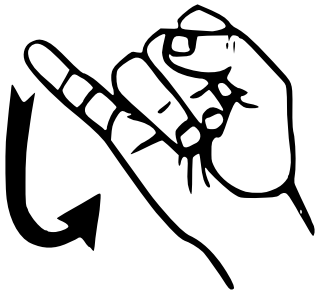

Answer Key: Letters That Move: J and Z

Answers for grown-ups. Where kids write their own ideas, the key shows one example.

J starts as an I (only the pinky up) and the pinky draws a J in the air. Z uses only the pointer finger, which draws a Z in the air.

Make each handshape, then trace the letter it draws.

J

Z

Circle the answer.

Which finger draws the J? pinky pointer thumb

Which finger draws the Z? pinky pointer thumb

J starts with the handshape for which letter? A I L

How many letters in the ASL alphabet move? 2 5 26

Art © Kevin Coulston