French · Les salutations · Grades K–2

French Greetings Match

Draw a line from each French greeting to its meaning in English, then pick the right greeting for three everyday moments.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Say bonjour to everyone and salut to friends. In France, friends and family often greet each other with la bise, a light kiss on each cheek.

Draw a line from each French greeting to its meaning.

Bonjour	Goodbye
Salut	Good night
Au revoir	Hello / Good morning
Bonsoir	See you soon
Bonne nuit	Hi
À bientôt	Good evening

Circle what you would say.

It is 8 in the morning and you meet your teacher. — Bonjour ! Bonne nuit !

You are going to bed. — Salut ! Bonne nuit !

You leave a friend's house after lunch. — Au revoir ! Bonsoir !

Art © Kevin Coulston

French · Les salutations · Grades K–2

Ça va? How Are You?

Learn four ways to answer “Ça va ?” and draw a face for each one, then tell how you feel today.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Ça va ? means “How are you?” or “How is it going?” Answer with how you feel.

Draw a face for each answer.

Très bien ! (Great!)

Bien. (Good.)

Comme ci, comme ça. (So-so.)

Pas bien. (Not good.)

Ça va ? Draw how you feel today.

Write your answer.

Ça va ?

_____

_____

Art © Kevin Coulston

French · Les salutations · Grades 1–3

Introduce Yourself in French

Read how Léa introduces herself, then write your own name, age, town and something you like in French.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Read what Léa says.

Bonjour ! Je m'appelle Léa. J'ai huit ans. J'habite à Lyon, en France. J'aime les chats !

Word help

Je m'appelle…	My name is…
J'ai… ans.	I am… years old.
J'habite à…	I live in…
J'aime…	I like…

Now write about you.

Bonjour ! Je m'appelle _____

J'ai _____

J'habite à _____

J'aime _____

Draw yourself saying bonjour.

Art © Kevin Coulston

French · Les salutations · Grades 1–3

Polite Words in French

Learn merci, de rien, pardon, s'il te plaît and s'il vous plaît, then choose the polite words for six everyday moments.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Merci = thank you. De rien = you're welcome. Pardon = sorry, excuse me. S'il te plaît = please, to one friend or a child. S'il vous plaît = please, to a grown-up or to more than one person.

Circle the polite words that fit.

A friend gives you a crayon. You say... Merci ! Bonne nuit !

Your friend says "Merci !" You answer... Au revoir ! De rien !

You bump into someone by accident. You say... Pardon ! Salut !

You ask your teacher for paper. You end with... s'il te plaît s'il vous plaît

You ask a friend to pass the glue. You end with... s'il te plaît s'il vous plaît

Someone helps you a lot. You say... De rien ! Merci beaucoup !

Art © Kevin Coulston

French · Les salutations · Grades 2–5

A Conversation: Tu or Vous?

Fill in the missing words of a conversation between two new friends, then decide when to say tu and when to say vous.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Word bank

Bonjour | appelle | ça va | merci | ans | Au revoir

Hugo meets Inès at school. Fill in the missing words.

1. Hugo : _____ ! Comment tu t'appelles ?
2. Inès : Je m'_____ Inès. Et toi ?
3. Hugo : Je m'appelle Hugo. Comment _____ ?
4. Inès : Ça va bien, _____ ! Tu as quel âge ?
5. Hugo : J'ai neuf _____. Et toi ?
6. Inès : J'ai huit ans. Oh, la cloche ! _____, Hugo !

French has two words for "you". Say tu to one friend, a child or someone in your family. Say vous to a grown-up you don't know well, like a teacher, and to more than one person.

Tu or vous? Circle the one you would use.

your best friend	tu	vous
the school principal	tu	vous
your little brother	tu	vous
two classmates at the same time	tu	vous
a shopkeeper you don't know	tu	vous

Art © Kevin Coulston

Answer key · Les salutations · Grades K–2

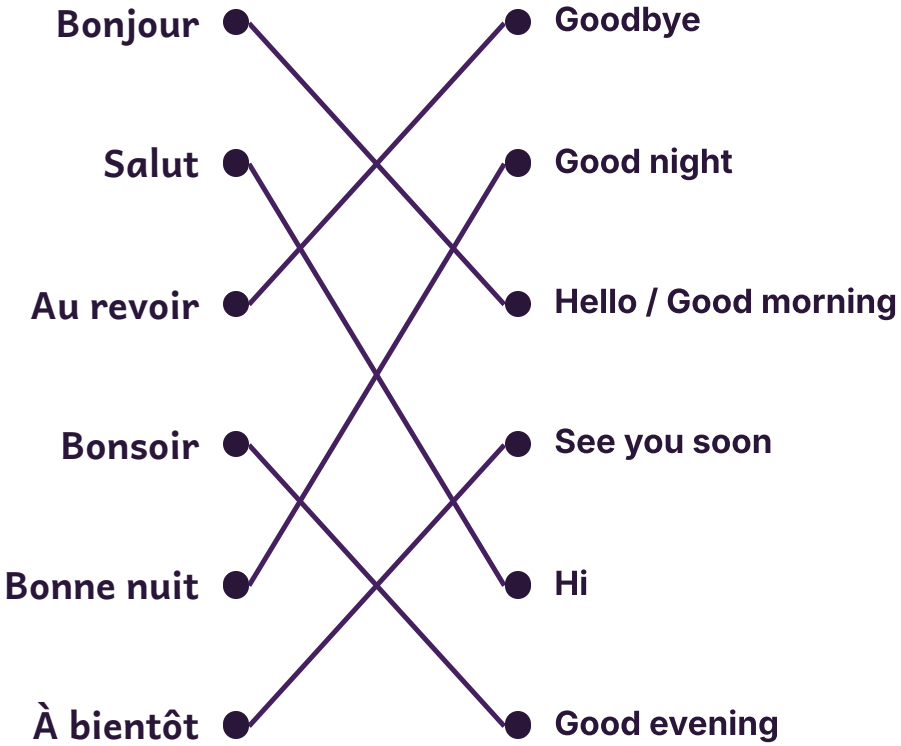

Answer Key: French Greetings Match

Answers for grown-ups. Where kids write about themselves, the line is left blank or the key shows one example.

Say bonjour to everyone and salut to friends. In France, friends and family often greet each other with la bise, a light kiss on each cheek.

Draw a line from each French greeting to its meaning.

Circle what you would say.

It is 8 in the morning and you meet your teacher. Bonjour ! Bonne nuit !

You are going to bed. Salut ! Bonne nuit !

You leave a friend's house after lunch. Au revoir ! Bonsoir !

Art © Kevin Coulston

Answer key · Les salutations · Grades 1–3

Answer Key: Polite Words in French

Answers for grown-ups. Where kids write about themselves, the line is left blank or the key shows one example.

Merci = thank you. De rien = you're welcome. Pardon = sorry, excuse me. S'il te plaît = please, to one friend or a child. S'il vous plaît = please, to a grown-up or to more than one person.

Circle the polite words that fit.

A friend gives you a crayon. You say... Merci ! Bonne nuit !

Your friend says "Merci !" You answer... Au revoir ! De rien !

You bump into someone by accident. You say... Pardon ! Salut !

You ask your teacher for paper. You end with... s'il te plaît s'il vous plaît

You ask a friend to pass the glue. You end with... s'il te plaît s'il vous plaît

Someone helps you a lot. You say... De rien ! Merci beaucoup !

Art © Kevin Coulston

Answer key · Les salutations · Grades 2–5

Answer Key: A Conversation: Tu or Vous?

Answers for grown-ups. Where kids write about themselves, the line is left blank or the key shows one example.

Word bank

Bonjour · appelle · ça va · merci · ans · Au revoir

Hugo meets Inès at school. Fill in the missing words.

1. Hugo : Bonjour ! Comment tu t'appelles ?
2. Inès : Je m' appelle Inès. Et toi ?
3. Hugo : Je m'appelle Hugo. Comment ça va ?
4. Inès : Ça va bien, merci ! Tu as quel âge ?
5. Hugo : J'ai neuf ans. Et toi ?
6. Inès : J'ai huit ans. Oh, la cloche ! Au revoir, Hugo !

French has two words for "you". Say tu to one friend, a child or someone in your family. Say vous to a grown-up you don't know well, like a teacher, and to more than one person.

Tu or vous? Circle the one you would use.

your best friend	tu	vous
the school principal	tu	vous
your little brother	tu	vous
two classmates at the same time	tu	vous
a shopkeeper you don't know	tu	vous

Art © Kevin Coulston