SEL · PROBLEM SOLVING AND DECISIONS · GRADES 3–5

Ask the Advice Column

Be the advice columnist: read three letters from kids with problems and write what they could do and your best advice.

Name: _____ Date: _____

You are the advice writer! Read each letter and write your best advice.

1. "My best friend wants to stay inside and play video games every recess, but I like playing outside. What should I do?" — Torn in Two

The problem is: _____

Two things they could do: _____

My advice: _____

2. "I forgot to study for my test tomorrow, and I'm starting to panic. Help!" — Last Minute

The problem is: _____

Two things they could do: _____

My advice: _____

3. "My little sister keeps going into my room and taking my stuff. I'm so mad!" — Bugged Big Brother

The problem is: _____

Two things they could do: _____

My advice: _____

Art © Kevin Coulston