SEL · GROWTH MINDSET · GRADES 1–3

Steps to Learn Something New

Number six steps of Jayden learning to ride a bike, from the first wobble to riding down the street, then write about a skill you learned.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Jayden is learning to ride a bike. Every new skill takes steps, and mistakes are one of the steps!

Number the steps from 1 to 6.

- ☐ He falls off and feels frustrated.
- ☐ He rides all the way down the street!
- ☐ Jayden wants to learn to ride a bike.
- ☐ He practices every day after school.
- ☐ He tries it for the first time and wobbles.
- ☐ He asks his mom for tips.

Something I learned step by step:

_____

_____

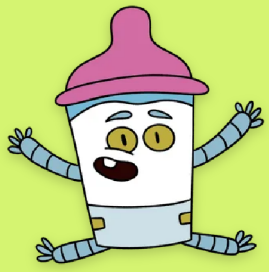

_____

Art © Kevin Coulston

ANSWER KEY · GROWTH MINDSET · GRADES 1–3

Answer Key: Steps to Learn Something New

Answers for grown-ups. Many questions have more than one good answer, so the key shows one example.

Jayden is learning to ride a bike. Every new skill takes steps, and mistakes are one of the steps!

Number the steps from 1 to 6.

3 He falls off and feels frustrated.

6 He rides all the way down the street!

1 Jayden wants to learn to ride a bike.

5 He practices every day after school.

2 He tries it for the first time and wobbles.

4 He asks his mom for tips.

Something I learned step by step:

Art © Kevin Coulston