What is bartering?

- Long ago, before money, people traded things they had for things they needed. This is called bartering.
- A farmer with extra eggs might trade them for a basket from a basket maker.
- Money made trading easier, because not everyone wants the thing you have to trade.

2. You have extra apples. Your friend has extra pencils. You need a pencil. What could you trade?

3. Why is money easier than bartering?

4. What is something you could trade with a friend?

Trades I could make

I have	I want	Who might trade with me
