We the People: The Preamble

The Preamble is the first sentence of the U.S. Constitution. Fill in the missing words from the word bank.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Word bank

Constitution · Liberty · Posterity · Tranquility · Welfare · Union · People · Justice

We the _____ of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect _____, establish _____, insure domestic _____, provide for the common defence, promote the general _____, and secure the Blessings of _____ to ourselves and our _____, do ordain and establish this _____ for the United States of America.

Big words

- Tranquility means peace and calm.
- Posterity means the people who come after us: our children and grandchildren.
- The Constitution was written in 1787. It is the plan for how our government works.

Why do you think it starts with "We the People"?

Art © Kevin Coulston