Spanish · Las oraciones · Grades 3–5

Yo, Tú, Él, Ella: Subject Pronouns

Match seven subject pronouns, then choose the right one to start each sentence.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Say tú to a friend or a kid your age. Say usted to be polite, like to a teacher or another grown-up.

Draw a line from each Spanish word to its meaning.

yo	he tú	I
usted	they
él	you (a friend)
ella	you (polite)
nosotros	she
ellos	we

Circle the word that starts each sentence.

About your sister: ... es alta. — Él / Ella

About yourself: ... tengo ocho años. — Yo / Ella

To your friend: ¿... tienes un perro? — Tú / Él

About your brother: ... juega fútbol. — Él / Yo

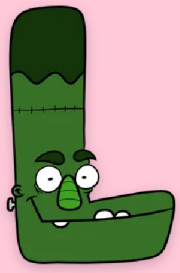

You and your friends: ... somos amigos. — Nosotros / Ellos

Art © Kevin Coulston

Answer key · Las oraciones · Grades 3–5

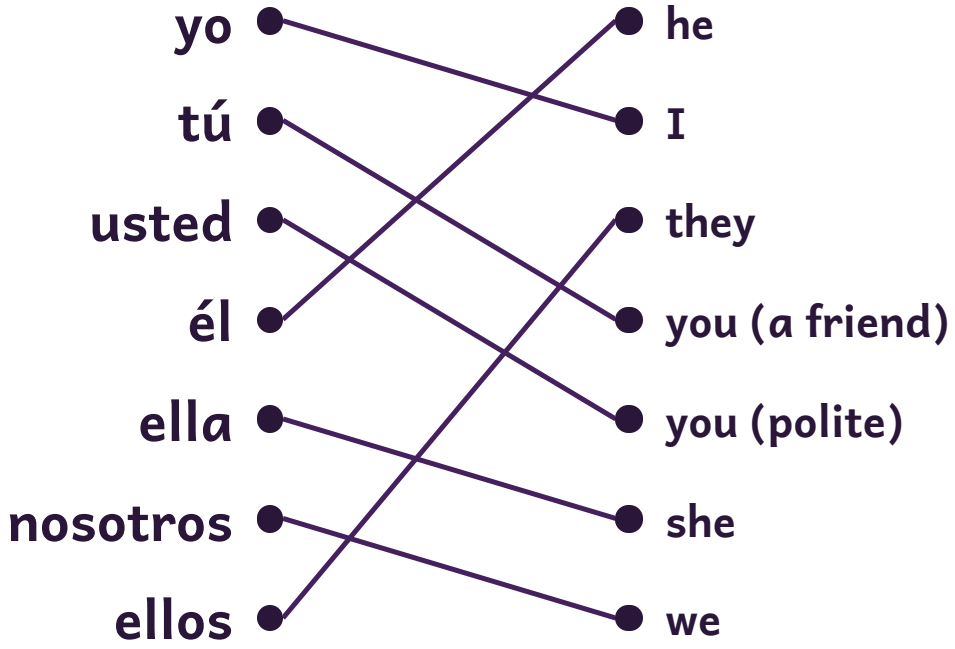

Answer Key: Yo, Tú, Él, Ella: Subject Pronouns

Answers for grown-ups. Where kids write about themselves, the line is left blank or the key shows one example.

Say tú to a friend or a kid your age. Say usted to be polite, like to a teacher or another grown-up.

Draw a line from each Spanish word to its meaning.

Circle the word that starts each sentence.

About your sister: ... es alta. — Él / Ella

About yourself: ... tengo ocho años. — Yo / Ella

To your friend: ¿... tienes un perro? — Tú / Él

About your brother: ... juega fútbol. — Él / Yo

You and your friends: ... somos amigos. — Nosotros / Ellos

Art © Kevin Coulston