CAPITALIZATION AND PUNCTUATION · GRADES 4–5 · 8 OF 20

Commas After Opening Words

Some sentences start with an opening word or a name. Put a comma after it. Write each sentence with its comma.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Put a comma after

- yes, no and well
- time words like first, finally and after lunch
- a name, when you talk to that person

1. Yes I would like more soup.

2. No thank you.

3. Well I think it will rain.

4. First we mixed the flour and eggs.

5. After lunch we played outside.

6. Sam can you help me?

7. Finally the bus came.

Art © Kevin Coulston