Plural or Possessive?

A plural means more than one (cats). A possessive shows who owns something and has an apostrophe (cat's). Circle the word that fits.

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. The _____ tail is fluffy. (cats) (cat's)

2. Three _____ played in the yard. (dogs) (dog's)

3. My _____ room is messy. (sisters) (sister's)

4. We saw five _____ at the farm. (horses) (horse's)

5. The _____ nest is in the tree. (birds) (bird's)

6. All the _____ need new pencils. (students) (student's)

7. That is _____ jacket. (Toms) (Tom's)

8. The _____ grew tall in the sun. (flowers) (flower's)

Write a sentence with a plural and a possessive.

Art © Kevin Coulston